2012 - The New Year

Debbie and Paul wish you all a happy, healthy and prosperous 2012.

A big 'thank you' for your support throughout the Christmas and New Year period. We were delighted at the response to all of our events. We thoroughly enjoyed ourselves and hope that you did too!

Christmas Lunch was a great success and we plan to do it again next year.

Anyway, enough of last year - what about this year!!

We are planning a whole programme of events this year which we hope you will enjoy - any suggestions for events - just let us know!

Coming Up...

St David's Weekend Festival - March 3rd and 4th 2012

The best of Wales - come along and get a taste of local Welsh real ales, ciders and fiery fare. Wear your daffodil or leek!

'A Night At The Races'

Dress up, name your own horse and have a little flutter. This fun-filled evening is being planned for Thursday 29th March 2012 and is all in aid of charity. Further details will follow shortly and horses will go on sale very soon!!

Route 76 Beer Festival - plans are still well under way for this popular yearly event. Further updates and details will be given here, in Pigeon Post, so watch this space.

Name The Bear

Our pub bear now has a name:

'Camem-Bear'

Congratulations to Eryl Jones for selecting the winning name

£21.50 was raised for Hope House

Find the Joker

The joker jackpot now stands at over £600 with a charity pot of over £200.

Come along and join in the fun on a Friday night.

Website

Look out for our new website - brand new design, lots of photographs and full details of all accommodation.
